Dear Mr. Adams,

This letter, when signed by you and returned, constitutes a formal agreement between you and The Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco ("the Museums") regarding your contribution to the publication tentatively titled ART OF THE HUICHOL ("the Book.")

1. You are to deliver to the Museums on or before August 1, 1977, a publishable manuscript of between 28 and 32 typewritten pages (double-spaced), complete with photo selections, captions, permission and reproduction rights and any other material necessary for a complete and accurate presentation of the subject. Your contribution will cover the subject of Art and Shamanism.
- * 2. You agree that all right, title and interest in the manuscript and the Book and associated copyrights, including rights of renewal, will be owned at all times by the Museums or their assignees. You warrant that you have not granted any rights in the manuscript to others, and that the manuscript has not or shall not be published before the date of the Book publication.
3. You represent and warrant that you are the sole author of the manuscript, that it is original and does not infringe upon the proprietary or personal right of another, that it contains no matter which is libelous or in violation of any right of privacy or otherwise contrary to law, and that you have the full power to enter into this agreement and to make the grants contained herein.
4. You indemnify and hold the Museums harmless from any loss, damage, expense (including attorney's fees) or recovery arising from or related to any breach or alleged breach of any of the foregoing warranties.
5. You agree that the Museums shall have the right to extend the above representations and warranties to third parties (including licensees of subsidiary rights granted to the Museums herein) and that you shall be liable to the same extent as if you had originally made such representations and warranties to third parties.
6. You agree that the Museums or their assignees reserve the right to edit and to exercise editorial control over
