Dear Prem Das:

I did get a chance, as I'd hoped, to consider your revised outline for THE SINGING EARTH and to discuss it with people here.

I think that the revised structure is very much on track, and I hope that you can do a couple of sample chapters soon.

I'm glad to hear that your classes and workshops are going well. Again, thanks for the Harner review, and I'm delighted at the prospect of having it reappear in THE LAUGHLING MAN.

Best,
