To Whom It May Concern:

Several individuals from the Huichol community at Tepic, Nayarit, have been invited to participate in an educational project which is jointly sponsored by the Anthropology Department at California State College at Hayward, and by the Lowie Museum of Anthropology at the University of California, Berkeley.

The Huichol plan to enter the United States early in 1972 for a period of approximately two weeks. Anything you can do to expedite the issuance of passports and visitors visas will be greatly appreciated by the aforementioned institutions.

Sincerely,

Frank A. Norick
Principal Museum Anthropologist
